Farrell Dinner Scheduled Tonight

(Desert Sun Photo)

WHO IS HE? — Villagers this week are busy trying to guess the identity of the King of Western Week, who will be crowned at the Friday night celebration. Only top Western Week officials know his identity, and they aren't even offering any hints.

FOUR FUN-PACKED DAYS LEFT IN WESTERN WEEK

Western Week is under way — bigger and better than ever — and with promises of more entertainment and surprises throughout the rest of the week.

Only three days of the Los Compadres sponsored seven-day event are past, with four fun-packed days remaining.

Today, Thursday, there will be a Western Cocktail Party at the Tennis Club, starting at 4 p.m., with the public invited. In the evening, Western night will be observed at the Doll House with a chuckwagon dinner featured. In both places, a free bottle of champagne will

This Side of The Sun

By Mrs. G.

Here I am, back in Palm Springs just in time to take over a Friday, the 13th column, Western Week and to clean up the shambles at 450 Olancha after three weeks of absence. But I must admit the expected shambles was only a half shambles. Well, at most, two-thirds.

Was agreeably surprised to come home in mid-afternoon after several days on the highway with Judge and Mrs. A. D. Mitchell of San Bernardino only to find that I could walk into the house, while that was at the office earning my living, without having to do an obstacle course.

There were discarded shirts hanging on only two door knobs, little or no wearing apparel hung on the floor, only the backs of two chairs were being used as coat hangers. But a mystery developed which hasn't been solved yet. There were just five socks on the magazine rack . . . Two variegated, two green and one red. What happened to the other red one hasn't been learned as of yet. After three days.

"I took some old newspapers out," said phat hopefully.

Well, if he did, the city dump has one red sock.

There were only two day's worth of dishes unwashed in the sink. Little silver. The breakfast nook was fairly clean. I marvelled at all of this and thought that after all of these years, improvement was being shown.

Then Mary, the little maid whom I engaged to come to the place to clean it thoroughly once a week solved the riddle. "Mrs. G.," she said, "the first

HE DIDN'T GO WESTERN — Frank Blasey of El Mirador hotel, is being strung up because he didn't go fully western for Western Week. Chief of Police John S. Davis is trying to intercede. Others are the pretty hang town deputies, Lynn Jennings, Billie Mosely, Enid Rauber, Helen Keniman and Constable Ann Purnell.

Pro Amateur Play Starts Golf Season

Winter golf season of Palm Springs will officially open this weekend when Tamarisk Country Club stages its second Pro Amateur tournament on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, with 40 top California pros and noted amateurs scheduled to participate in the 54-hole invitational event.

Heading the list of pros is Mr. Golf himself, Ben Hogan, Tamarisk pro, who is resuming tournament play for the first time since his sensational British Open triumph last Summer. Hogan has been playing his home course since his return last week, and in one of the sessions set a new course record of 64, eight under par.

PRIZE MONEY for the pros in the combination open and best ball event will be $3,000, with $500 going to the first place winner. Amateurs will be awarded prizes valued at $1,000. Competition for Hogan will come from the leading golfers of California, including Ed Vines of Cochran Ranch; Pat Martin, teaching pro at Tamarisk; Jimmy Hines of Thunderbird; Zell Eaton of Los Seranos; Ellsworth Vines, Wilshire Country Club.

Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs, Aid in Chest Drive

Community Chest drive is rolling along in high gear. This week announcement has come from the Desert Hot Springs group that Joe Kenya has been appointed chairman of that city's drive. He in turn has appointed as his co-chairman, Eric Walker, president of Desert Hot Springs school parent guild.

Both men are working with the Palm Springs Community Chest office in setting up a door-to-door campaign for their area. Mrs. Frances Bigelow, of the local Chest office, is assisting the two in making their plans for the drive.

Last season Desert Hot Springs was not contacted to enter the drive with Palm Springs, and it is hoped they will get great support from their city as much of the Palm Springs charity work is done there.

HARDY NEW PRESIDENT OF DESERT BAR ASS'N

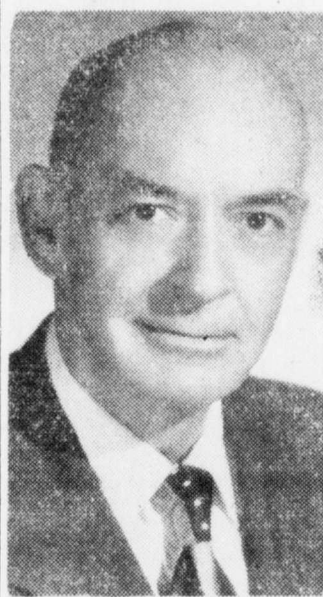

Monday night board of trustees of the Desert Bar Association met at El Mirador hotel and elected Rex Hardy, Palm Springs attorney, president; Alexander W. Staples, Indio attorney, vice president; and David M. McGahey, Palm Springs attorney, secretary-treasurer. The other members of the board are: Judge Eugene E. Theriault and Attorney Warren E. Slaughter of Palm Springs; Judge Wallace P. Rouse and Attorney C. Frederick Woolpert of Indio.

After the election, the meeting adjourned to the Howard Manor for further discussion of the problems and plans of the coming year.

Calling attention to the part the Desert Bar association played in obtaining a superior court for the desert area, Pres. Hardy said that there is still much to be done.

The desert superior court has saved residents of the eastern end of the county hundreds of miles of travel to the county seat but some of them still make the trip he said. Minimum jurisdiction of superior courts in suits is $3,000 and maximum jurisdiction of judicial courts, $500.

He said the area must now work for a municipal court to handle cases between $500 and $3,000 without making a trip to Riverside necessary. He also said the bar association will strive for a county building on the desert for branches of all county functions.

NEW PRESIDENT—Rex Hardy, local attorney, who this week was elected president of the Desert Bar association.

Christmas Tree Sales Program Revealed Today

Christmas trees will be sold this year at selected vantage locations in Palm Springs and surrounding area by a committee representing the Palm Springs Shrine club, Owen B. Coffman post of the American Legion and the Coachella Valley High Twelve club. Walter Melrose is chairman of the group and he represents the High Twelve club. Milt Hicks and George Strebe are acting for the American Legion and George O. Wheeler for the Shrine club.

Charles St. George has been named representative to call on business and professional people for orders and to arrange for shipment of extra large trees for hotels and others requiring them.

At least 25 per cent of the net proceeds will go to the Community Chest and the balance to the principal objectives of the organizations represented.

LEARN BY DOING — One of the most notable features about Twin Pines Ranch for Boys is that a trade is taught the boys besides their regular high school subjects. Pictured above are two Ranch Hands in the welding shop. The Desert Sun, with the aid of its readers, is now conducting a subscription campaign which will aid in purchasing dress Western outfits for the boys who are being rehabilitated there.

Farrell to be Honored by City Tonight

Tonight the week and the might of this resort community, including many from beyond the city limits will converge to pay homage to a former city official.

By 7:30 a wide cross section of the Village's population, and many from near the gates of Indio and Banning as well as Hollywood, will gather in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi where they will honor ex-Mayor Charles D. Farrell.

AT THE SAME TIME Roy E. Colegate, ex-city attorney who

Governor Goodwin Knight in a telephone conversation with Bill Rashall of the Desert Sun staff said:

"Please convey my deepest affection and love to Charley. If it was at all possible I would be at his testimonial dinner but prior commitments make my presence there impossible. I will be down in Palm Springs around Christmas and will make it a point to personally see Charley."

spent many years in legal service to the city also will be honored.

There will be many in the Starlite Room tonight to honor the former city officials it is indicated by the number of reservations made early.

The entire event is sponsored by Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce, with Fred C. Weigel and Bill Anderson, co-chairmen of the event. Frank Bogert will be Master of Ceremonies.

A limited number of tickets are still available from members of the Junior Chamber or at the Chi Chi.

THERE HAVE BEEN several mayors in Palm Springs since its incorporation and its early days as a city. But it is the opinion of many that none made a deeper impression on his fellow citizens than Charles D. Farrell, who resigned last August.

His resignation ended seven years of salaryless duty to the Village and he moved from the head of the Palm Springs government.

TWIN PINES ACCLAIMED AS MODEL FOR STATE

By DON KLOTZBUECHER

A peaceful atmosphere in a peaceful setting — where troubled boys may lose their problems and re-enter the world completely readjusted.

Twin Pines Ranch, nestled in a picturesque little valley on the northern slope of stately and majestic old Mount San Jacinto, was established several years ago for this very purpose of rehabilitation of boys who are socially maladjusted.

ITS START came only after a fairly long and determined campaign by Ranch Superintendent.

Larry Etchison who is an entertainer from Bakersfield, while visiting in Palm Springs last week read the story about Twin Pines and the current subscription campaign to buy uniforms, and immediately offered his own expensive Western outfit, just purchased, if it could be used by the boys.

Etchison last appeared in a benefit show at Dave Lyons' Bakersfield Saddle and Sirolo restaurant, being master of ceremonies.

dent Ralph Johnson and Harold Butterfield, who was then county probation officer.

Many reasons were given then why such a program could not succeed—but in its years of operation all have been dispelled by the almost 100 percent success of the program here, and its gradual acceptance by other counties and states as a model for their youth rehabilitation projects.

IT WAS A RADICAL experiment in those days, where boys who were in minor trouble largely due to environment, were placed in a ranch type home, without any fences or guards to keep them there if they wanted to leave. But, with the faith of Supt. Johnson and Butterfield, it succeeded.

Very few boys have left the Ranch during its years of operation, for they know that if they do, they can never return.

THE BOYS receive the necessities of life, but need more. Right now, the choral group there is in constant demand for providing entertainment for service clubs and other organizations throughout Southern California, and The Desert Sun, with the cooperation of our readers, is attempting to purchase dress Western outfits for them.

We hope that this can be accomplished before their

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

IT'S BEEN SUGGESTED . . . by Les Wagner in The (Los Angeles) Mirror . . . that fresh, clean air from Palm Springs be piped into the homes of Los Angeles smog sufferers . . . for a monthly service charge. While the idea seems a bit impractical it illustrates well the utter desperation that prevails among residents of the great-big-city when faced with the worsening smog problem. When the experts say they don't even know what smog actually is, it gives some idea as to how long it may take to eradicate the menace.

If it were possible to pipe our fresh desert air into Los Angeles we would be glad to supply it free at this end. One sniff of our air would only make people want to come here all the more. But — as we say — the idea doesn't seem practical. The best remedy right now is to hop into the old bus and head for the desert. As long as we can't send it to you, you might as well come and get it.

We hope Los Angeles finds some way of licking the air pollution problem. We wouldn't wish living in that stuff onto a Chinese Communist. Palm Springs will still have its attractions — of which fresh air is only one — and we think we'll still do all right. We have no desire to rub the smog problem into the nose of the city which has done so much for us. As a matter of fact we worry about the smog way out here sometimes — it seems to slip around San Jacinto and drift out into the Pass occasionally. So we are on your side in your fight against fumes.

Neither do we believe that the smog in Los Angeles is so bad that it will keep the city from going clear to the top. It has too many advantages. No place is perfect. We even admit to having an occasional sandstorm which detracts a little from the purity of our desert air.

So . . . while your authorities work on the smog problem you might as well freshen up a bit on weekends by driving down to Palm Springs. You will not only leave the smog behind — but your cares as well. You'll return to your duties in the city refreshed and better prepared — physically and mentally — to take up the tasks of tomorrow.

Rice Declares He'll be in Race in '54 Election

Sheriff Joe Rice publicly assured his employees at a dinner meeting at the Sheriff's Training Center last week that he would run for election next year.

The sheriff emphatically denied rumors that he would not be in the running.

The occasion for the dinner meeting at the Box Springs grad training center was the first anniversary of Rice's administration as sheriff.

RICE TOOK OFFICE on Nov. 3, 1952, replacing Carl Rayburn who resigned.

Rice outlined for his employees the past year's activities and accomplishments, and also unfolded plans for a six-year county-wide program for juveniles.

He said the sheriff's office is already committed to supporting a baseball team in Riverside's Little League.

Ground Watch Corps Told of Defense Needs

Fifty members of the Ground Observer Corps attended the general meeting of the group held Tuesday evening at Frances Stevens school cafeteria.

Captain Owens, commanding officer of the Santa Ana filter center, the featured speaker, told the group that the Ground Observer Corps is very important in national defense, with the possibility now present that radar may be blocked by equipment carried by enemy aircraft.

Members discussed their planned trip to the Santa Ana center on Sunday, November 22. Anyone desiring to make the trip is asked to call the office of City Manager R. W. Peterson, director of the local Civil Defense program.

Francis Crocker was chairman of the meeting.

Last Rites Said For Mrs. Holland

Funeral services for Mrs. Camilla L. Holland, 74, of Trampview Trailer Park, Cathedral City, were conducted at 9 a. m., Wednesday, at St. Louis' Catholic church, with the Rev. Joseph Leissler officiating. Interment was in Palm Springs cemetery. Recitation of the Rosary was at 8 p. m., Tuesday, at Wiefels and Son chapel.

Mrs. Holland died at 10:45 a. m., Sunday, at her home following an illness of only a few hours duration.

A native of Denmark, she had been a resident of California for 35 years, and of Cathedral City for two years.

Survivors are her husband, Dr. Bernard J. Holland, and a sister, Mrs. Leona White of Riverside.

week I came as you said. But after looking the place over, decided that maybe I had better come twice a week. The second week I decided that maybe I had better come every other day."

She said that she took care of everything except the great stacks of newspapers. Practically all of the Los Angeles dailies every day. Desert Sun and sundry other papers.

"They looked too important to throw out," she said.

Back in Hinsdale, Illinois, a beautiful old suburb of Chicago where they read the Sun, they ribbed me one day when they saw two stories in one issue of automobiles. That next day we parked outside of a quiet old tea room for lunch just outside of town. And when we came out an hour later, a wind wing had been pried open and almost everything in the car stolen. So I had a chance to call attention to their remarks about what phat calls "car clouting" in California. It was very annoying.

My glasses were among the loot. Which meant that I couldn't decipher phat's letters. They are hard enough to read, even when typewritten and one is equipped with glasses.

Having little time to go east I had to forsake phat's beloved FSP and flew back. It took me six hours to Chicago and Hinsdale from Los Angeles. We drove back in the judge's new auto and it took us six days to come back.

I didn't look it up myself but the master statistician just told me that there will not be another Friday, the 13th, until August, 1954.

In case some of you may have just tuned in, phat never writes a column when there is a Friday, the 13th, in the week. Too superstitious.

Perris at Elsinore

Springing back into the Riverside County League title spot, light by results last Friday, Coach Clarae Ballagh's Indians now have a double incentive for winning over San Jacinto tomorrow night.

First, they need the win to stay in the race, and second, it will be the first time in current league history that a Palm Springs team will have won on the San Jac field.

THE INDIANS are tied with Hemet and Elsinore for the league lead at the present time, each having records of four wins and one loss. Tough games are on deck for all three Friday.

PALM SPRINGS had an easy time in winning over Beaumont last Friday, running up a 26 to 0 score. John Laster netted two touchdowns, one on a pass and the other on an interception; Alvin Harrison scored another on a 45-yard jaunt, and Brubaker added the fourth on a four-yard quarterback sneak.

Coach Ballagh picked Laster, Harrison, Vince Gonzales, Chuck Martin and the entire defensive unit as outstanding.

Sam Taylor announced this week that Carl Schroeder is swimming instructor at The Tennis Club this season.

The popular swimming instructor is planning a series of picnic luncheons and hikes for the youngsters, in addition to their swimming lessons.

FOLLOWING the opening card, on Saturday night there will be seven bouts of amateur boxing, with top amateurs of this area participating.

Martin Zuniga, U.S. Amateur Champion in 1929 and winner of 173 of 175 amateur and professional fights during his ring career, has been named match-maker for the boxing matches.

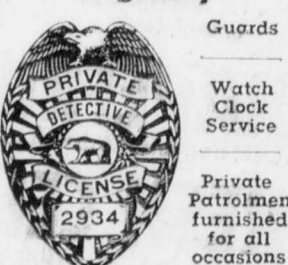

Wrestling will continue each Friday night, and boxing every Saturday evening. Reservations for the bouts may be made by calling 6569, or by visiting the arena office Thursday, Friday or Saturday.

Thunderbird Invitational Next Week

Annual Ladies
Tourney Starts
Monday Morning

Third Ladies' Annual Invitational at Thunderbird Country club will be held November 16, 17 and 18, with 195 already entered for the 36-hole play.

Chairman Ruth Manseau has arranged for a curtain raiser, a Mixed Scotch Foursome, on Sunday, the day prior to the start of the invitational. Play will start at 8 a. m. and prizes will be awarded at 5 p. m. at the clubhouse.

Among the 110 couples entered are: The Ralph Kinners, Milt Hicks, Harry Von Zells, Ross Clarks, Phil Harris' and Desi Arnez'.

Three prizes will be given for low gross, and 14 for low net, Mrs. Manseau said.

The Invitational will start Monday, with the entrants playing two of the three days. Defending Champion Mickey Wright will play in one of the outstanding foursomes of the meet. With her will be Ruth McCullah, runner-up last year; Evelyn Kertes and Barbara Romack. Two of the four will play with a one handicap, one will play at scratch and the fourth at one less than scratch.

KEN EVANS CARDS FOURTH HOLE IN ONE

Playing with Jim Diamond, Frank T. Goff and J. Ross Clark, II, at Tamarisk Country Club, Thursday, Ken Evans, local sportsman, connected with the Palm Springs Studebaker Agency, had his fourth hole-in-one on the No. 2, 174 yard hole.

In 1950, at Laguna, he had two holes-in-one in two weeks, one on the second hole and one on the fourth. In 1952 at the O'Donnell course in Palm Springs he had a hole-in-one on the fifth.

Rather a coincidence, also, is the fact that De Goff was present as Evans' partner on two of the four occasions.

Rainiers Start Plans for 1954

Three officials of the Seattle Rainiers visited here recently to secure lodging and other facilities in preparation for the 1954 Spring training season.

They were: Torrey Torrance, vice president; Dewey Soriano, business manager, and Jerry Priddy, manager.

The Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce is currently contacting all hotels on behalf of the Rainiers.

School Board to Meet this Evening

Board of trustees of Palm Springs Unified school district will hold its regular meeting at 8 p. m., tonight, Thursday, at the Frances Stevens school.

Racquet Club's Netters Defeat Balboa 28 to 14

The Racquet Club emerged winner in the Racquet club vs. Balboa Bay club tennis matches played this past weekend at the Racquet club. Final score for play in all three events of men's doubles, women's doubles and mixed doubles gave the Racquet club 28 points to the Balboa Bay's 14 points.

Outstanding was the play of the Racquet Club women who swept the beach city players with a clean 8-0 score.

Playing in the mixed doubles with her husband Dr. Lewis Morrill, lovely red-haired actress Rhonda Fleming made her first appearance in any kind of tournament play. Mrs. Morrill has only taken up the game since her marriage. They split sets with Lucy Woodward and Bob Smith.

Mrs. William Powell and Jim Phillips playing Mr. and Mrs. David McClyment played the longest fought battle of the play before winning 10-8, and 6-2 to chalk up two points for the Racquet club.

appearance next Spring at the largest construction industry in the United States will be celebrated at the Annual Congress of the Building Contractors Association of California in Palm Springs next week. It was announced by Irving C. Jordan, BCA president.

During the past thirty years the business of construction has grown in southern California into the dominant industry, employing directly and indirectly more people than any other. Along with it, the Building Contractors Association has grown into the largest and oldest builder's organization in the nation, Jordan said.

WHEN DELEGATES and guests from eighteen chapters of the BCA gather in El Mirador hotel November 19 and 20 they will be representing a membership of nearly 2,000 and an industry which in the 15 southern counties of the state does 70% of the total California construction. The BCA pointed out emphasizing the size and importance of this industry, a BCA survey reveals that the California construction industry is equal dollar-wise to the combined states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Issuing an invitation to all firms and individuals engaged in any phase of construction to attend the Thirtieth Anniversary Congress of the BCA, Jordan pointed out that the decisions made there, and the information to be gathered there would vitally affect the entire industry for the coming year. Jordan said that all connected with the industry would be welcome whether or not they are yet BCA members.

ROBERT A. OLIN, of Arcadia, general chairman of the Congress, released this week a tentative schedule of events which included panel discussion headed by top industry leaders. Subjects to be discussed will be Mortgage Finance, led by Nels Severin, BCA second vice president from San Diego; Labor Relations, with Leo J. Volk, of San Gabriel, BCA labor relations committee chairman, presiding; and First Vice President L. U. Jones of Whittier leading three panels on residential and commercial remodeling, general-subcontractor relations, and construction law.

Teeing Off at Tamarisk

BY AVERY ALLEN

Bob Hope and Ben Hogan, "Mr. Golf," had a go around with a zillion laughs for the gallery.

Good neighbors dropped in this week, Ed Vines from Cochran, Jimmie Hines shooting his road game against Walter Mulady, chairman of the Board of National Truckers, George Howard from O'Donnell back down from rainy country looking fit.

Had an interesting chat with Harry Grossman, retired realtor, who came to Los Angeles in 1906 and to Palm Springs in 1911, driving a Cadillac of same year with aprestulite system, no less, and $200 more than a Ford at that time.

New members here this week were Dan Thorns, bells, whistles; Wray of Van Nuys, Carl Haymond, Palm Springs, Mack Millar, Beverly Hills, Ralph Levy, La Quinta, A. R. Scheffer, Palm Springs and Frankie Laine from Hollywood.

Betty Herbert, one of my most favorite gals was hostess at a luncheon and bridge for the Mesdames Lloyd Simon, Merwyn Frank, Charles Becker last week.

Ben Hogan and Lou Golan did a full loop — B. H. with a great score but won't let me write it.

The David Factors hosted Alfred and Shirley Firestein for the weekend; the whole Joe Blumenfeld family was down from S.F. and son Alan giving the pater a lesson in long and straight — father having to sneeze on the backswing to win 1 up.

Ivy and Frances Pink are in their new home for the winter, so now that he (thinking he knew the course) didn't punch on a light and broke his toe on the new furniture. Can't get on the turf for at least another week.

Thimble (1 lb. 2 oz) Hefferman can't tell a coot from a duck yet and she is five months old. Always kicks up the birds on our lake holes and has to be washed white again.

Pat Martin, teaching pro is back after winning a decision over the flu and busy on the tee getting the boys back on their sticks.

Everyone zinged up about the Pro-Am over the weekend. Just to see Mr. Golf hit his Texas wind ball once is worth the $3.60 treatment. All the biggies will be here with their Sunday games.

Annual Veterans Tourney to Draw Seventy Netters

Seventy tennis players from throughout Southern California are expected to participate in the annual Veteran's Tourney at the Racquet Club Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 13-15.

Desert Club at La Quinta Plans Three-Day Opening

Palm Springs newest recreational club dedicated to fun, relaxation and good food stands revealed today with its formal opening to take place over a period of three days.

Charles Soffer, managing director of the new Desert Club, where approximately a quarter of a million dollars was spent in improvements, additions and refinement, announced that the public is invited to attend the opening today, Friday and Saturday and to view at first hand all that has been done to make the Desert Club at La Quinta take its merited place in the Palm Springs resort area.

Working crews swarmed over the grounds throughout the Summer months to complete landscaping, a new Sky Room, the only one on the desert; new poolside snack bar, enlarged dining room called the Coral Room; the new cocktail lounge called the Fountain Room. In addition there is the beautiful heated and filtered swimming pool, tennis courts, volleyball courts and the new pitch-and-putt golf course. Still in the planning stage are the new stables where moonlight, breakfast and steak rides will be formed.

"The public is invited to this three day opening of the Desert Club," Charles Soffer said. "Further the public may take advantage of the deliciously prepared food by Chef Bart Flexas formerly with Romanoff's of Beverly Hills."

Council District Suit Studied by Appellate Court

District Court of Appeals in San Bernardino on Tuesday took under submission all arguments on the superior court decision upholding the Palm Springs city council in its refusal to submit to the voters the question of setting up new councilmanic district boundaries on the grounds that it would be illegal.

Appearing for the city were City Attorney Jerry Bunker, and former City Attorney Roy Colegate, who was specially retained by the city for the hearing.

Counsel making the appeal from the earlier ruling was Leonard Bock, who is representing five plaintiffs, Sal Allessandro, Fritz Blotter, Joe Palozzi, Don Seiler and Fred Swedehjelm, in the action.

A decision is expected in approximately four weeks.

Hungry Youths Meet Trouble in Grocery Store

Taking three cans of tuna from the shelves of a local market Tuesday morning, at the same time they purchased a loaf of bread, brought trouble for two youths, 16 and 17 years of age.

When taken into custody by local police, the 17-year-old reported that he was a deserter from the U.S. Marine Corps at Twentynine Palms, and was turned over to the Provost Marshal there. Charges here were dropped.

The 16-year-old was released to the custody of his mother at Yucaipa.

ernment to a leading national role in radio and television.

MANY CIVIC LEADERS and close friends of Farrell declare that his resignation was the best for his physical well being. It was pointed out that when the former mayor first agreed to do, what was then believed to be a short series of television shows, it was not expected that "My Little Margie" would attain the popularity that it has nationally. Farrell who co-stars with Gail Storm in the skit, was asked to do a radio show as well. These commitments plus the operation of the Palm Springs Racquet club and his sincere desire to do a good job for the city, (which always marked his attitude as mayor) was just too much. He resigned his position with the city. But there is more to all of this than appeared on the surface.

IT WAS POINTED OUT today that Charley, as he is familiarly known, will still be doing the city of Palm Springs much good because of his national TV and radio shows on two separate networks coupled with the fact that he is a citizen and former mayor of Palm Springs.

Colegate spent many unpaid hours in the services of Palm Springs. It was he who acted as legal consultant when the Palm Springs city charter was drawn. The records indicate that he rarely lost a tilt in court as a representative of the city.

Despite the transition that some people say Palm Springs is going through, the people here have not lost that peculiar type of sentiment which sets this resort community apart from many other cities in California as does the difference between night and day, sponsors of the event declare. It will be expressed tonight at the Chi Chi.

Couple Denies Theft Charges

Glady Thomas, 46, and Andrew Howard, Sr., 43, both of Los Angeles, entered a plea of not guilty to charges of grand theft (person) when appearing at arraignment before Judge Eugene Theriault in justice court Tuesday.

Their preliminary hearing was set for November 24. Both are free on bail.

The couple was arrested by Police Chief John S. Davis on October 29, after he had witnessed the theft, the first time in his police career that he had seen a crime actually committed, he said.

Merchants Drop Council Salary Proposal Study

A study of councilmanic salaries from 94 California cities was presented to the Retail Merchants Association, Inc., at its regular meeting Tuesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The report showed that of 94 cities on the report, 14 did not pay councilmen for their services, and of the ones which did (excluding the three largest cities) the average was slightly more than $25 monthly.

THE GROUP expressed its appreciation for the report, and asked that it be filed.

Further action of the question of paying local councilmen will not be taken, the group said, expressing the opinion that the next step is up to the council, if payment is desired.

SIX MEMBERS of city council have gone on record definitely opposing any pay proposal, with the seventh preferring not to express a final opinion until a study was made.

Other items discussed were: off-street parking and parking meters, the 1954 Desert Circus and merchandising practices. W. G. Roeseler, city planning director, was a guest at the meeting.

Civic Chorus to Present Brahms Concert Nov. 23

Music lovers of the desert will welcome the announcement by Harry Tomlinson, director of the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, of the forthcoming presentation of the Brahms "German Requiem" on Monday, November 23, at the Jewish Community Center. This is the first of four separate concerts to be given this year by the Civic Chorus, and the first time the work has been performed in the Palm Springs area. The "Requiem" has gained in popularity over the past year due to new record releases and to the fact that it was chosen as the main presentation at the Music Festival in Scotland last summer.

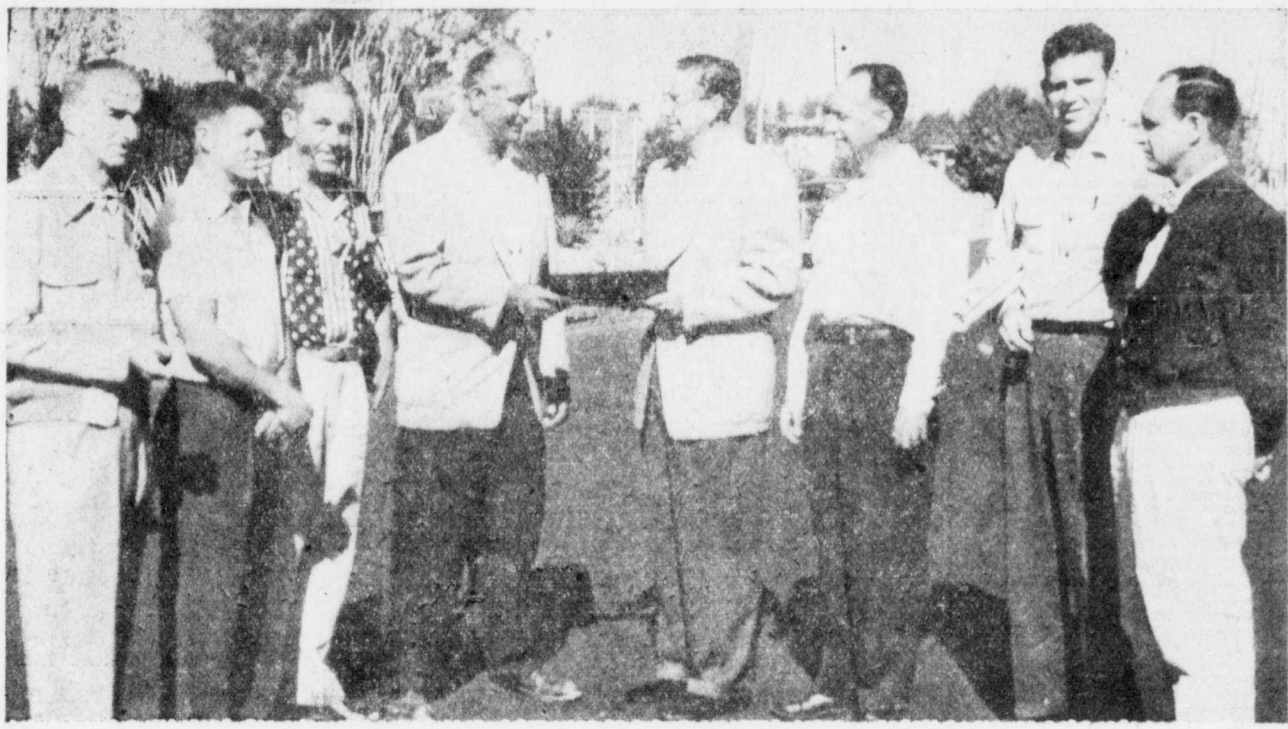

The Civic Chorus was formed four years ago under the Adult Education Authority of the Palm Springs Unified school district, and reached maturity last year with its exceptionally fine performance of the "Elijah" oratorio of Mendelssohn. The chorus is composed entirely of local residents; and through Tomlinson's expert guidance and wealth of experience, has proved that Palm Springs is capable of producing an organization which is a valuable cultural asset to the whole desert area.

Coming from Los Angeles to perform with the group are two soloists, never heard here before: Mervyn Dant, baritone; and Ann Shaw Price, soprano.

These two singers are well known in the Los Angeles area, having long been identified with the First Congregational Church in that city. Also on the program will be a group of organ works played by Fred Barnes, also of Los Angeles. Mr. Barnes was heard in Palm Springs two years ago when he gave a recital at the Community Church. Barnes and Christine Tomlinson, accompanist for the Civic Chorus, will play a Baldwin organ especially installed for the performance.

Season tickets are available which will cover all four programs to be given this year: The Brahms "Requiem" in November; Handel's "Messiah" at Christmas; a repeat performance of the "Elijah" in February; and all-Bach program in April. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the chorus, at the Frances Stevens School, and at the Village Pharmacy.

William Sands, city draftsman, Councilman Ted McKinney, Councilman Jerry Sanborn, Janich, Mayor Boyd, City Manager R. W. Peterson, Tom Selman, city engineer, and John Keele, director of public works. The new thoroughfare will be officially dedicated tomorrow night.

Visitor's Bureau Traffic Growing

Visitors' Bureau traffic at the Chamber of Commerce increased considerably during the month of October, Manager William Dunkerley reported.

During the month there were 525 persons requesting information in person, 807 by telephone and 446 by letter.

Results from the first advertisement in the October 25 copy of the Chicago Tribune, were $9 information request coupons by the end of the month.

VAGRANCY CHARGED

Glen Robert White, 52, Lubbock, Texas, was arrested here at 3:25 a.m., Saturday, on a charge of vagrancy.

Carnation Cook Book!

Our grand new cook book is yours for the asking! Packed with almost fifty new, tested recipes for main dishes, salads, desserts—including our prized Cream Pie Recipe with 3 jiffy variations! Menus, too, and many hints and ideas. To get your Carnation Cook Book, send your name and address to June Goode at address below.

Nature provides no finer food than pure, fresh whole milk. And there is no finer milk than fresh Carnation Homogenized Milk, made extra protective with Sunshine Vitamin D. I'm sure your small fry, too, love that cream-in-every-drop flavor—so let's plan today on other ways of using this finer milk. Cream soups and creamed vegetables, of course—and here's a recipe for a delicate, lemon-tangy surprise custard! When you turn it out in dishes, there's a little sponge cake sitting on top of each custard!

CAKE ON TOP OF Surprise Custard!

(Makes 4 servings)

1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks
1 cup Carnation Homogenized Vitamin D Milk
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 egg whites

Mix sugar, flour, salt, egg yolks and milk; beat until fluffy. Add lemon juice; fold in beaten egg whites. Pour into medium custard cups. Place cups in pan and surround them with water. Bake in moderately slow oven (325° F.) 35 to 45 minutes.

GRANDMA used a broomstick but I prefer to stick a silver knife in the custard! When it comes out clean, custard is done.

SANDWICH FILLING IDEAS

Mix 3 hard-cooked, chopped eggs with 1/4 cup chopped olives, 2 tablespoons chopped nuts and 1/4 cup mayonnaise. Combine 1 cup cooked chopped chicken or tuna, 1/4 cup each of chopped celery and pimiento and 1/4 cup mayonnaise.

For a "surprise"—blend 1/2 cup softened process-type American Cheese with several tablespoons Carnation Half & Half and 1/2 cup chopped dried beef.

Homogenized Cows?

My small daughter boasted, "Our milk comes from Carnation Homogenized cows!" Made me realize I didn't exactly understand the word so I looked it up. Seems creamy whole Carnation Milk is forced through tiny openings under terrific pressure, in modern high-speed homogenizing machines. Breaks up the cream into such tiny particles that there's cream in every drop of Carnation Homogenized Milk. No wonder it has that extra-creamy flavor that makes it top choice with all!

Sandwiches ARE LORDLY FOOD!

Did you know sandwiches were named for John Montagu, 4th Earl of Sandwich, back in the middle of the 18th century? A hearty sandwich, fruit and a thermos of fresh Carnation Homogenized Milk is still our standby for the school lunch box! A well-balanced meal!

Palm Springs Youth Center Wins State-Wide Acclaim

(This is the second in a series of articles on agencies aided by your contribution to the Community Chest.)

Palm Springs Youth Center, an agency of the Community Chest, has been acclaimed by county and state officials for its value to the community in providing a place for teen-agers to spend their leisure hours. Any teen-ager, 13 to 19 years of age, may use the modern facilities of the Youth Center, with hours during the school term being from 3:30 to 5:30, and 6:30 to 9:45, daily, and 1 to 9:45 p. m. Saturdays.

TED McKINNEY is director of activities. The program is arranged by a youth council, under the supervision of a board of nine lay members. Directors are: Paul Summers, chairman, Mrs. Annette Freeman, Mrs. Frances Ripley, Mrs. Helen Staley, August G. Kettmann, Leo Baker, Mrs. Barbara Coffman and Mrs. Moya Henderson.

The Youth Center itself is a project of the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society, and is a non-profit, non-sectarian agency. It was constructed in 1948 at an approximate cost of $70,000, raised through private subscription and benefit parties and events, and a $20,000 contribution from E. A. W. Peake and an $8000 contribution from Harold McAlister.

An average of 60 to 85 teen-agers use the facilities there daily which include ping pong, two television sets, basketball, volleyball, badminton, and horseshoe courts, pool table, checkers, chess, dominoes, and several hobby shops.

THE YOUTH CENTER is centrally located at 386 North Belardo road, across from the O'Donnell Golf Club and just north of the new Chamber of Commerce offices.

It has been acclaimed as one of the first and finest institutions of its kind in the entire country, judged in terms of layout, objectivity and excellence of its program.

Other cities, desiring to start a similar program, have visited the Youth Center and secured general building and program plans.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Sheriff's "Push" Pulls a Vote

Was talking with our newly elected Sheriff Williams the other day. He told me about a fellow who stopped by his place late one night just before election.

"Heard a knock at the door," he said. "Fellow I never saw before. Told me his car went dead down the road and would I give him a shove. My boy, Flip, and I went out to his car with him. We're all set to push when he steps on the starter and the motor turns over."

"Well, Flip and I just stood there when the fellow leans out the window and says, 'Just wanted to make sure you're the right man to vote for!'"

From where I sit, the fellow who's quick to lend a hand makes any community a better one. But you don't have to run for office to prove you're a good neighbor. One way I know is just to have a little regard for the other fellow. Whether your neighbor likes beer or buttermilk, don't try to push him to your choice. Just give him your "vote of confidence."

Motorist Held After Car Jumps Curb, Hits House

Raymond Francis Lewis, 46, 144 North Calle Encelia, was arrested Sunday afternoon on a charge of driving while intoxicated and hit-and-run property damage, following an accident in which his car was involved, at 425 South Indian avenue.

Witnesses reported that Lewis' car ran the stop sign at Ramon road, narrowly missed colliding with another vehicle, and then jumped the curb and struck the apartment building at 425 South Indian, police said.

Lewis was later arrested at his residence, following investigation by Officers E. G. Johnson, Ed Gutmann and T. M. Aitken.

At a hearing before Judge Eugene Theriault in justice court Monday, Lewis was fined $150 and had his driver's license suspended for 90 days on the DWI charge, and was fined $50 on the hit-and-run charge.

The $300,000 suit was filed by Mrs. Sadie Koch, mother of one of the victims.

Services District

At the regular monthly meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors held last week there was further discussion concerning possible boundaries of the proposed Community Services District. First Vice President Leslie Kelley presided. A report from President Paul Clark was read stating that the inclusion of Sunair and Charlesworth tracts in the proposed district was still being considered by those involved. If organized the district would have power to issue bonds for improvements when authorized by a two-thirds majority of voters within its boundaries for the supply of water, sanitation facilities, fire protection, parks and recreation, street lights and police protection. A committee to assist Edward Biles, chairman of the park committee, was appointed for the specific purpose of making a survey and recommendation for the preservation of the trees in the park. Claude Cobb was named chairman with Herbert Henry and Edward Biles, County Planning Commissioner and Chamber of Commerce Director L. C. Lewis was asked to contact the proper authorities concerning restroom installation on the park grounds.

Dump Cleaned Up

Cathedral Sanitation District refuse dump located one mile east and one mile north of the intersection of Date Palm drive and Ramon road has been cleaned up and put in excellent condition for the current season. District President Claude Cobb states that it was necessary to spend several hundred dollars of the district's money for the job which required much bulldozing time. The dump is being increasingly used by the surrounding area, he said, and it is hoped that some assistance may be had from county funds. The greater use of the dump site means a lessening of indiscriminate dumping on the roads and open desert. Mr. Cobb wished to emphasize that there is no charge for dumping, but that only trash, tree trimmings, etc., are acceptable. Garbage must be picked up by the regular disposal service, which is the only lawful way of disposing of garbage in the district.

Turkey Dinner

Father Joseph Leissler reports that the big news of the week at St. Louis church is the annual turkey dinner on Saturday, November 14, from 5 to 8 p. m. in the parish hall on "B" at Glen. It will be an old fashioned turkey dinner with all the trimmings. This year the quantity of food has been doubled, while still holding to the same high quality of previous years. Eighteen Georges George Birds (390 lbs. of tender meat) with orchid cellophane wrapping no less, have been purchased. Attending the meal will give the friends of the parish an opportunity to pay their social obligations and save wear and tear on themselves. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Everyday friends and neighbors are bringing quantities of articles for the fifth annual rummage sale which this year will be held in the parish hall, beginning Saturday, November 21, at 9:30 a. m. Though the parish has been gathering articles for the past year, it is still eager to help relieve the bursting closets and crowded spaces of the Valleyites. Articles of clothing, hardware, costume jewelry, odd dishes, cutlery, pictures and furniture will all be gratefully received.

Woman's Club

Desert Air hotel was the setting for the annual breakfast of the Cathedral City Woman's club which is always held the first Wednesday of each November. It is a meeting to which guests and prospective members are particularly welcome. The president Mrs. Alphamary Larsson presided over the business meeting and Miss Margaret Davidson over the program. Following the breakfast Miss Davidson led a interesting discussion by members and guests on desert gardens and plants and then introduced the speaker of the day, the county federation president, Mrs. A. M. Rowell, who chose as her topic "Making Footsteps." Following the meeting Mrs. Larsson and Mrs. Rowell visited Shady Mountain club where plans were formulated for February 16 when the Cathedral City club will be hostess to the Riverside County Federation of Women's Clubs on Public Relations Day.

A cooked food sale was held in the Cordes Floor Covering Store last Saturday under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Davidson. Hilary Ways and Means chairman with very gratifying results. The club has many philanthropic projects which are supported by fund raising events throughout the year.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the Town Hall at 2 p. m. next Wednesday. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. James Ketchersid and Mrs. C. A. Madison.

Community Church

A covered dish supper was held Tuesday evening at Community Church following a Scots program with E. M. Dering, in kilts, rendering Harry Lauder songs. Mrs. Marjorie Hunter showed colored slides of Scotland taken of the Hunter's trip to Europe this summer. The evening was in the nature of a farewell party to the Derings who are leaving this week to spend the Winter in Mexico City. Mr. Dering is one of the church elders and has also been officiating as chief usher. Painting of the exterior of the church building and the parish home is under way. This is the start of a program of improvement and beautification under the sponsorship of the woman's auxiliary. To help pay for this and proposed projects the auxiliary is holding a bazaar and food sale on Friday, November 20 in the Almaycey building at 706 Broadway. Miss Lydia Engh, who is in charge, has asked for contributions of aprons, miscellaneous gifts and "white elephants" as well as cooked food. Dr. Graham Hunter announces that a class for children in the second and third grades will be opened soon at the parish house on Wednesdays at 2:30 p. m. under the supervision of Mrs. Sam Micelli.

Lions Club

Lions Club directors at their last board meeting voted to install a new gas hot water heater at the Town Hall. President Francis Wood pointed out that as the Lions were the principal users of the kitchen facilities and the club paid only a nominal rent of the hall that the purchase would also be a contribution to the community. In accepting the gift, Chamber of Commerce President Paul Clark stated that while title to the Town Hall was held by the Chamber of Commerce, the chamber felt that it acted only as a trustee for the community's benefit and that the Woman's club and Lions club as community service organizations were in reality co-proprietors.

Notes in Brief

Palm Springs Police Chief John S. Davis will be the speaker at tonight's dinner meeting of the Lions club, according to an announcement by Lloyd Simon, program chairman for tonight's gathering. Lions Deputy District Governor Fred Woolpert of Indio will also give a short address.

Sam Arner has returned from a Summer's extensive picture taking and lecture tour. He secured both motion pictures and color slides of most of the prehistoric Indian ruins in Arizona and New Mexico and has developed a technique for photographing the native life exhibits in the great museums of the country. He gave illustrated lectures in New York City, Pittsburgh and in Michigan based on the year he spent in Mexico two years previously.

Word has been received that Miss Irene Urbach is slowly convalescing from serious illness which required hospitalization in Austin, Michigan, where she had journeyed on a Summer trip.

The current (November) issue of National Geographic carries an article with color photographs which is a condensation of the book "Journey by Junk" by Willard Price, noted Cathedral City traveler and author. The article describes a trip made by the Prices last year, through the famous Japan Inland Sea and the color photos show some exquisite Japanese scenery.

Dr. Ellarene MacCoy of the state board of education, in charge of the rehabilitation program in the southern California area is a houseguest this week of the J. K. Wolseth at Desert Lodge. Mrs. MacCoy is well-known to the public health and school nurses in Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial counties where she was formerly in charge of the bureau of child hygiene.

True Immortal is Subject of Lesson

Contrasting the false sense of existence with the true state of man's being will be the keynote of the Lesson-Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

A verse from I Corinthians (15:49) is the Golden Text: "As we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

In John's Gospel (8:15, 16, 17) Jesus teaches, "Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. Then said Jesus unto them, ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Mortals are not like immortals, created in God's own image; but infinite Spirit being all, mortal consciousness will at last yield to the scientific fact and disappear, and the real sense of being, perfect and forever intact, will disappear." "The mortal mind through which Truth ap-

Week of Prayer Starts Saturday for Adventists

A "Week of Prayer and Sacrifice" will begin for members of Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday, Pastor Kenneth Smith announced Monday.

The first service of the solemn occasion will be held at Sabbath worship exercises Saturday morning. Other "Week of Prayer" services will be conducted each evening at 7:30 in the Adventist church here for the next seven days. The final observance will take place on November 21.

Special prayer services in which members of the church will take part individually will mark each of the evening meetings, according to Pastor Smith. He said that the purpose of the "Week of Prayer" is the "help people realize the vast resources of power available through prayer."

In addition to placing special emphasis on devotional exercises, members of the Seventh-day Adventist church here will follow a schedule of frugal living in order to give a "sacrificial offering" at the close of the "Week of Prayer." The offering will be used for the extension of Christian work the denomination is conducting throughout the world.

The "Week of Prayer" will be observed by nearly a million adult members of the Seventh-day Adventist church in all parts of the world.

Explaining the project were three members of the cerebral palsy mobile unit—Margaret Rood, Etta Underwood and Donna Robinson.

appears most vividly is that one which has lost much materiality—much error—in order to become a better transparency for Truth." (p. 295).

Tonne, Lucile Wolf, Muffy Bula, and Sylvia Mendoza. Both Darlene Cole and Lucile Wolf also received their cooking badges. The girls served refreshments to their mothers and other guests following the meeting.

Following the investiture the girls slept at the Little House for the balance of the night, being chaperoned by Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. Helen C. Erfer.

Something DREAMS ARE MADE OF

A home is more than wood, nails, cement and plaster. A home multiplied by millions is our country. Without love, sacrifice, understanding and reverence to the Creator of all things, there is no home, just a house. A nation of homes is strong and good.

But without integrity in our government, daily living, and our home, no dream, no home can be secure. Our wonderful nation was created by men with dreams, and strong faith in God. Now, this democracy is threatened from without and within; and the strong foundation our forefathers laid must ever be strengthened. YOUR own church is the steel in this foundation.

Be ahead on operating costs! Both the mighty Loadmaster engine on heavy-duty models and the rugged Thriftmaster engine on light- and medium-duty models squeeze more miles out of every gallon of gas. Chevrolet trucks cut upkeep costs, too.

Be ahead on trade-in! You're ahead with low first cost... you're ahead with low operating costs... and you're dollars ahead again when it's time to trade! That's because Chevrolet trucks traditionally command a higher trade-in value. Buy now and be ahead all ways!

Carelessness in Walking Habits Takes High Toll

"Don't walk yourself to death."

Though the advice is simple, the California Highway Patrol reveals today that 882 Californians have failed to heed it and paid with their lives last year.

Most common fallacy is human judgment, as indicated by the survey, was failure to look both ways before crossing streets or highways.

"Almost four of every ten pedestrians killed met death by dangerous mid-block crossings," commented B. R. Caldwell, patrol commissioner.

"Pedestrians must remember their responsibility to obey the traffic regulations. They must also be constantly on the alert for the mistakes that too many motorists make," he added.

Caldwell listed the following important points for all pedestrians to follow:

1. Always walk facing traffic if no sidewalks are provided.
2. Wear or carry something white when walking at night.
3. Use crosswalks whenever possible.
4. When the light turns green be sure that all cross traffic has stopped before you start across the street.
5. Always look both ways before stepping off the curb.
6. Be constantly aware of the danger that exists until you reach the far curb.

APRIL, 1954, SET FOR HEARING ON ELECTION FOR CHARTER PROPOSAL

Hearing on a proposal to call an election on a charter form of government for Riverside county will be held in April of next year on the petition of the Associated Chambers of Commerce was started.

MONDAY ACCORD was reached with the Associated Chambers of Commerce when they agreed to put off the hearing until April 5, 1954. This date will still leave enough time to set the election for June, which date was first proposed by the association.

The election would be held at the same time the state primaries are held. Attorney John Babage said that possibly the supervisors could not call the election, anyway, before April 5.

THE FARM BUREAU and the Association of Chambers of Commerce are the two county-wide groups that have demonstrated most interest in the charter proposals so far.

The vote of the supervisors on the delay until April 5 was four to one.

The dissenting supervisor, Irwin Hayden, said he felt the supervisors should not set a definite time for the new public hearing. He said there should be no limit to the time for the study of the charter proposal.

LEADERS of the Association of Chambers of Commerce and the Farm Bureau said they will ask for a continuation beyond April 5 if the study of the charter proposal is not completed by then.

Leaders of the association said they have advocated an election to coincide with the statewide primary election in June because that would save the expense of a special election on the charter proposal. (The expense has been estimated at $15,000.)

HAYDEN PROPOSED that the supervisors establish a separate committee from the one sponsored by the Farm Bureau and the Association of Chambers of Commerce. That proposal lost on a vote of three to two.

Supervisor Sherman Lewis voted with Hayden, but Supervisors William Jones, Homer Varner, and Roman Warren voted against him.

They said they saw no need now for a second committee.

THE FARM BUREAU was represented Monday by Charles A. Thomas of Corona, acting for the bureau's absent president, Gordon Dunlap.

Thomas said the bureau's attitude toward a charter study was "entirely cooperative . . . not at all negative."

President Oscar Crowell of the County Association of Chambers of Commerce said the association is "wholeheartedly in harmony" with the Farm Bureau's proposal for a cooperative study between now and April 5.

Two members of the association's charter study committee—C. A. Washburn of Indio and Tom Clay of Pedley—made similar expressions.

With Hildy Crawford

"Horses . . . horses . . . horses" . . . This is the week everyone is crazy over them . . . and wearing at least a touch of Western garb . . . to prove it . . . Some of the costumes look like they'd win the approval . . . of the wardrobe department for a plush hosiery . . .

In simpler fashion . . . many of the men just added a Western shirt and tie . . . to get in the spirit of things . . . and some of the gals (who really ride) are wearing their jeans, shirts and neckties . . . But, you can't tell the riders from the non-riders . . . for some of our most ardent horsewomen (like Anita Haskell Jones and Dottie Higgins) are really gussied up for the occasion . . . and their smart attire adds color to Western Week . . .

Heading the calendar of social events this week . . . is the Charles Farrell testimonial dinner at the Chi Chi tonight . . . and, if you can still get a ticket . . . don't be too scrupulous about how you get it . . . just don't miss it . . .

Among the many who will attend the Farrell testimonial dinner . . . in addition to city officials and Hollywood celebrities . . . will be the Francis Crocker, Scotty Rubin, the Bill Powells, Harry Paisleys, Sherman Hulls, Basil Brewer, Lily Pons, Ralph Kiner, Fred Ingram, John Connor, Sol Lesser, Rudi Sidlers, Mrs. George Machris, Carl Lesserman . . . Chief John S. Davis, Harold Hicks, Senator George Maypole . . . Mr. and Mrs. William Reichel . . . Mrs. Zaddie Bunker, Gus Kettmanns, Judge and Mrs. Hilton McCabe . . .

It's Sensational

Another must . . . will be El Mirador's formal opening on Saturday night . . . when society will turn out en masse for this gala affair . . .

A Frenchman (just completing a world tour) once said . . . that he would like to wrap up The Tennis Club and take it home with him . . . as the one souvenir of his trip . . . I had a peek (but I'm not talking) at what's going on up there . . . and I will say this much . . . "It's going to be sensational" . . . I think if the Frenchman could see it . . . he'd INSIST this time . . .

In Aloha Land

Pictures of pineapple fields, poinciana trees . . . Diamond Head and the Lurline . . . accompany a brief note from Lilian and Franklin B. MacCarthy who are in the Hawaiian Islands on a vacation trip . . . Lilian writes that "This is a heavenly place" . . .

Mary and Bill Gargan were down for the weekend . . . and to attend the Racquet Club's formal opening . . . Mary says they will be "in and out" of Palm Springs . . . Glenn and Vivian Austin were also down from Bel-Air . . . Vivian is looking marvelous . . . and just "happened" to have with her . . . a handful of pictures of their little Angela . . . who is seven months old now . . . and ruling queen of the Austin household . . .

Off A-Hunting

Charles and Win Becker take off tomorrow for Texas on a hunting trip . . . They will be guests of Jud Williams Heath on his 12,000-acre ranch . . . Actually, Win, who is still limping from her sprained ankle, will be the hunter . . . She'll travel in a station wagon and do her shooting from a blind . . . for deer and wild turkey . . . Rated a very good shot . . . she's pretty sure to bring back something to show for her trip . . . They'll both celebrate their birthdays en route . . . as his is tomorrow (Friday the 13th) and her's is Sunday . . .

From Texas Mr. Becker goes to Miami to attend a meeting . . . and Win and her daughter Jacqueline Cole plan a fortnight at Elizabeth Arden's in Phoenix . . . They'll all be back here early part of December . . .

Mrs. Julia Lindsay of Long Beach, is here for a visit . . . with her daughter and son-in-law, Helen and Jack Kenaston . . . I didn't see them . . . but I hear Billie and Bob Kenaston were down over the weekend . . .

Picture Show

Harold and Florence Murphy hosted a group of friends Sunday night at cocktails and buffet at their Prescott drive home . . . The group comprised friends who had not yet viewed the "Around the World with the Murphys" color film . . . The Ralph Shelleys, Edwin Fallgrens, Reed Hubbells, Miss Louise Peale, Mrs. Vera Lyter, Dr. and Mrs. Sam Means of Lake Tahoe (they are spending a few weeks in the Edward Bacon

El Mirador Opening on Saturday

In all the West there is no hotel like El Mirador and of all the events that crowd the Palm Springs' social calendar there will be none more glittering than El Mirador's formal opening Saturday night.

Already the scene of several big conventions and informal affairs, the beautiful hotel is keyed to a hubbub of excitement for its opening.

Rudi Sidler, managing director, has planned a gala affair. The dinner, a marvel of cuisine, is being prepared under the direction of Chef Steve Yankovich and Eddie LeBaron's orchestra, (comprising 12 pieces) will play for the dancing. Additional entertainment and a floor show will make this an outstanding evening at El Mirador.

Klieg lights outside and the lighted palms in the garden, that are visible in the lobby, will add to the brilliant scene. Many celebrities, Blue Bookers, and socialites from Los Angeles, Beverly Hills and Palm Springs, and Winter visitors from all over the country will be among the diners.

The Kiva room, which was the scene of the Western Style Show yesterday, will be filled at the cocktail hour, and a number of private cocktail parties will precede the dinner. Dress will be optional.

Early reservations include: the William Maloufs, who will host a party of 14; the Leonard Ribbitts of Los Angeles, the Edward Houghtons, Lee Berings, Frank Ryans, C. O. Millers.

The Tom Flemings were Sunday night hosts . . . at one of a series of small, intimate affairs . . . The Kenneth Kirks and the Herbert Burns joined them for dinner and a conversational evening . . . Next weekend the Martin A. Samuelsons of Arcadia will be the houseguests of the Flemings . . . and go with them to El Mirador opening and the Costello party . . .

Everything is Western this Week

They're using Western chopsticks at Don the Beachcombers this week, and Manager Roy Bradley is greeting arrivals with a drawled "Howyuhall," in the tempo of Western Week. Van Johnson (who was in with his wife Evie and Louise Celestin) was busily addressing cards to send all over the country. His signature is a freckled face.

Among other interesting guests this week were: Gene Kelly, Ray Milland, the Bob Metzger, the Russ Wades, one of the Mrs. Charles Chaplins, Cameraman Leo Tover and his wife, Rhonda Fleming and her husband Dr. Morrell, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Sanchez (who arrived in the Village Saturday), the Earl Coffmans.

Rotary Anns Resume Weekly Meetings

Mrs. Hazel Stachler and Mrs. Howard Jay have assumed the chairmanship of the fellowship committee for Rotary Anns which resumed their meetings yesterday.

Rotary Anns, which meet at The Tennis Club, every Wednesday at 12:15 p. m., simultaneously with the Rotary Club meeting, is designed to offer hospitality to wives of visiting Rotarians.

Racquet Club Opens Formally

Gala indeed was the Racquet Club's formal opening party Saturday night. Gowns by the country's noted designers vied with the lovely creations from the hands of Paris fashion specialists, while adding that just right note to the beautiful women wearing them.

The dance floor was crowded throughout the evening with couples delighting to the wonderful dance music of Eddie Kelly, Ray Milland, the Bob Metzger, the Russ Wades, one of the Mrs. Charles Chaplins, Cameraman Leo Tover and his wife, Rhonda Fleming and her husband Dr. Morrell, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Sanchez (who arrived in the Village Saturday), the Earl Coffmans.

Dozens of parties filled the room, both small and large. Hyatt Von Dehn played host to his fiancée Beverly Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gage (Esther Williams), Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wade and Mirror columnist Brandy Brent.

Jack and Bonita Granville Wrather, who were down for the weekend, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rogers, Mrs. Timmie Granvilles who is Mrs. Wrather's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Castle.

Betty and Monte Herbert were with Elsinore Machris and her fiancé Harold Maundrell, Mr. and Mrs. Asher Levy, and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Simon.

Shirley Duggan who does the Examiner's delightful stories on interesting homes was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krist as were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boneparte.

One of the many two-tones was that of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keating, popular annual visitors from Chicago, who are making their first visit of the season to the Racquet Club. Ditto Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davidson.

Lovely young Boni Buehler and her devoted escort Geary Steffen were among the guests of Samuel Sontag as were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Austin, down for their first visit of the season, Miss Gloria Gray and Quay Sargent.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gallois and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Benoist made a foursome whom we glimpsed chatting with Lily Pons, as she danced by with her escort Bill Bogges.

One of the largest groups of merrymakers was that hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming which included Mr. and Mrs. William Bannerman, Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk.

Columbia Pictures executive B. B. Kahane and his wife were in the gay party that included Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meiselman and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Small.

Chuckling over a story being told by host Al Hunt, were a delightful group that included pretty Nellis Hunt, Gertrude Clappett, Doris Markell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ahmanson, Mrs. Lester Selig and James Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Dumont among those in a party that included Mr. and Mrs. William Burlingham.

Largest single gathering of the evening was that of some thirty members of the Balboa Bay Club headed by president K. T. Kendall and Mrs. Kendall. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prentice

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chalfont of 3400 Sunny Dunes, are announcing the wedding of their daughter Julia Ann to Pvt. Charles Edward Knupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knupp of 596 Via Escuela.

The wedding, which took place on October 31, was in the St. Francis chapel at Mission Inn in Riverside. About 25 guests attended the wedding reception, which followed in the patio.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina-length pink lace, with matching hat and veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John L. Sanborn, who was matron of honor, wore a gray gown and pink hat. Mr. Sanborn was best man.

After the ceremony the young people left for a brief honeymoon.

were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McGovern, while other delighted groups were hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Unger, Dr. and Mrs. Julius Kaplan, Mr. Ben Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrell with Mr. and Mrs. William Powell, Jean Sitarski and Harold Hicks; Stanley Langendorf, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weinberger, Mr. Carl Lesserman, Mr. Frederick Wile, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ronald Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Al Epstein.

Club Plans Escorts' Night

It will be Escorts' Night, when the members of the Palm Springs Woman's Club entertain their husbands and friends at the clubhouse Monday evening, November 16, at 8 p. m.

A sparkling program, featuring The Roguettes, will be presented by Mrs. Randall Henderson, program chairman. The Roguettes are five beautiful and talented young women noted on the concert stage and TV screens. In a recent survey they were rated third finest of all TV shows.

Following this year's policy of making the club members more civic-minded, Mayor Florian Boyd will be a special guest.

Mrs. S. P. Manasse, president, will preside at the meeting.

Serving on the tea committee will be Mesdames Walter Boyce, Thurston Chase, Marion White, Thomas Boyce, Ivan Barstow, Fred Hess and Stanley Sarnecki.

Friends Help Lily Pons Lay Cornerstone

In Palm Springs we have glamor!

Where else would one answer the telephone to hear such a person as Lily Pons on the other end saying in her cute French accent "I want YOU to come to my new house to be present for my cornerstone laying." When guests arrived on the top of the rocky ledge, with one of the most perfect views on all the desert, there was Singer Lily running around clutching her champagne bottle. In it she had numerous papers to be buried in the stone foundation.

When asked what was in the bottle she said "All my seecreets!"

After the ceremony she took a few of her close friends up to the Ford house where she is living until her own house is completed.

Gathered around her pool for a toast to the new home were: Ruth Hardy, who has been a friend of Miss Pons for many years, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gallois, who have one of the show places in this area and whose parties assemble only the most noted of the International set.

Others present were Mrs. Mandana Beckner, Beth Scott, Frank Prince, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Bill Bogges, Arthur Coffee, William Dunkerley, George Wheeler and Gayle Thompson.

The first fashion show presented by Ruth Bradley at The Tennis Club Saturday, for wives of visiting physicians, was very well received.

The story takes place on a train, as the heroine is en route to her home town, where her father has been charged with the murder of her mother. As the train speeds her to her destination she reviews her past life and the things that led up to the murder. The book has a surprise ending.

Miss Bear reviewed the books of Willard Price ("Journey by Junk"); "California Utopian Colonies"; by Robert Hines; "Baja California," a guide book by Ralph Hancock; and a mystery "Dear Dead Days" by Jay Barbette, a pen name for the Spicers.

The fun begins Saturday noon with a lunch and moving picture, and a steak dinner, prepared by Mrs. Margaret Theriault and her assistants, will be served from 4 to 8 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Leona Martin has charge of the Mexican dinner that will be served on Sunday from 4 to 8 o'clock.

The Hole-in-One golf game on the grounds will be supervised by Pat Martin, Tamarisk resident golf pro.

The following chairmen of the Fun Festival are at work on arrangements for what is expected to be a very successful event: Mrs. Winifred Cody, general chairman; Jerry Floyd, donation chairman; Bob Rech, chairman; Pat Barbara, entertainment chairman; Mrs. Mary Sitter, booth chairman; Mrs. Jackie Cole and Mrs. Norma Jean Smith, publicity.

Foot Notes

By LYNN EMRICK

Every day Dr. Clarence L. Smith and I guide groups of people on a tour through our Museum. Since no field trip was scheduled last Saturday (Dr. Smith had to go to San Diego on Museum business) Foot Notes shall feature a tour of our Desert Museum.

The other day Mrs. Frank Purcell and little Johnny came in and I escorted them on tour. As they entered the Museum they faced a small case which houses our baby side-winder. This little fellow, unfortunately, is as poisonous as his grown up brother and both my guests were eager to move on. "Whiskers," our pet kangaroo rat, is an exhibitionist. He likes nothing better than to perform. When he knows he has an audience he goes into his specialty act and Johnny was an interested spectator. While Johnny watched the kangaroo rat, Mrs. Purcell found the three baby tortoises putting on their own show. They like to line up and synchronize their movement—like chorus girls. We moved on into the main auditorium. We have an attractively arranged display of Cahuilla baskets. The women of the Cahuilla Indian groups which occupied this desert country produced fine baskets of the types displayed. They are sewn rather than woven—the technique is called "coiling" and is accomplished by sewing stitches through a foundation bundle coiled in a continuous spiral. The sewing element is mostly from a Juncus reed and the colors, except for black, are the natural colors of the reed. I told Mrs. Purcell that the black was derived from fern roots and Martynia pods.

The next display was prepared by Dr. Smith. This is a comparison of some items in the culture of our Desert Indians and those of the Arunta tribe in Australia. Dr. Smith has arranged various objects—like a Cahuilla Chief's medicine bundle; a wand of hawk or owl feathers carried in the hand or worn in the hair, and shows sketches of similar objects used by the Australia aborigines.

Two large ollas (pronounced "oy-yah") were found by Robert Geggie in Chino Canyon and are next in line.

From this display we moved on to study colored pictures of various species of cacti. Any desert flower lover will enjoy these pictures. Materials in the next case are intended to illustrate the range of variation possible, in the handling of materials and decorative devices in basketry, the most widespread of weaving techniques. There is a feather-decorated basket from the Pomo of Clear Lake in Lake county. There are baskets from the Klamath River Hupa in northern California. There are others—on in particular—a delicate pastel from Attu Island in the Aleutians.

On top of the glass case of precious stones and minerals is a miniature cacti arrangement made by Slim and Patricia Moorten. You will recognize a variety of cacti from the "old man" to the "powder puff." Of course, precious stones have always intrigued man. We have many fragments on exhibit. We have cassiterite (tin), mica, opal, garnet, lead and silver, manganese, vanadinite etc.

From this glass case I took my guests to our darkroom—an exhibition of fluorescent minerals donated by Dr. William Colburn, a member of the Board of Trustees.

We walked back to take a look at the collection of dried desert flora. Botanists study for many years before they can identify each specimen. Johnny didn't feel up to it at this time and we moved on to the mounted animals. Johnny expressed joy at seeing the beasts. He stroked the bobcat. There's a cacomistle or ring-tailed cat and a small fox on display, too.

Next we have a photograph of our beloved desert artist, Carl Eytel and a dozen or so of his sketches. Mr. Eytel was a personal friend of Earl Coffman and some of these paintings were donated by the hotel man. But more about Carl Eytel next week. One can elaborate on this renowned desert artist for hours and both Mrs. Purcell and Johnny had to run. I could still hear the sounds of Johnny's boots as he disappeared leaving me alone with sounds of my own "Foot Notes" to write.

Popular Actors Here for Visit

Barnard and Helen (Stenborg) Hughes, popular members of the Playhouse theater cast, were weekend houseguests of Mrs. John S. Lapp at her hilltop home.

While they were here, they visited the theater and inspected the new dressingrooms and improvements and were very enthusiastic about them.

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. Lapp asked the board of directors of the Playhouse Guild in for an informal cocktail party. The Hughes have taken a house in Studio City for two months, until time to come to Palm Springs for the January opening of the Playhouse Theater.

Along with Producer Herb Rogers and other members of the cast, they have just completed a very successful season in Highland Park, Illinois. The theater there is housed in a great tent that held as many as 11,000 people a night and they played to "Standing Room Only" audiences. Mrs. Lapp attended some of the shows there this summer.

After Highland Park, the Hughes appeared on the TV show "The Bennett Story" in Chicago, along with Michael Ferrall, who is also well-known to Village audiences.

Ted Avery Weds in Germany

Ted Avery and Terry Pienes were married in the Little Lutheran Church on the island of Norderney, off the coast of Germany, October 31. A large reception was held in the Hotel Kaiserhof after the ceremony.

Ted Avery is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Allen, resident brokers at Tamarisk Country Club, and is now in military service with the Armed Forces Network organization and does his own show and newscasts from the Bremerhaven station.

Before going into service he was an actor in Hollywood, having parts in "Little Big Horn," "Kid Monk Morani" and "West Point Story." He has just finished an important part as Broderick Crawford's son in the Fox Cinerama movie "Night People" directed by Otto Lang. Much of the film was shot within a few yards of the Russian border between East and West Berlin which, according to word received by his parents, was a rather harrowing experience. He is now dubbing English into German films for release in this country.

The bride, whose home is on Norderney, and who speaks several languages, worked with the French Underground during the war and since that time has also done work in German and French movies.

When his term of service is over in February the couple will return to this country and are planning to make their home in Palm Springs, near their parents.

Village Visitors Tell of Eleven Month World Trip

Major Clayton A. Beran, Ret., U. S. Air Force, and his wife, Marie, who have just returned from an 11-month, 49,000-mile around the world trip, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Netherby, 227 South Cahuilla road.

Reason for the trip was unique, with Major Beran explaining that "I had been many places during my 29 years of service, but my wife had not been able to accompany me. So I wanted her to see the world too."

The tour started from New Orleans, shortly after his retirement November 30, 1952. They traveled through the Panama Canal, to the Philippines, Saigon, Bangkok, Celebes, Borneo, Singapore, the Mediterranean countries, Holland and Germany where they purchased a Hillman Minx and toured the European and Scandinavian countries.

Altogether, their trip by boat covered 34,000 miles, by auto 15,000 miles and they only had one plane trip—from Tangiers to Gibraltar, in a 1932 model airplane.

Friendliest countries and people they found were the Scandinavian countries, where most residents speak English besides their own language.

One of the highlights was the visit to colorful Tangiers, where the city is divided into two parts, one modern and the other "backward." They became lost in an alley in the "backward" part, kept traveling along the narrow lane, and it kept becoming smaller and smaller before they finally found their way to a street.

The Berans were unable to enter Berlin because of the trouble there at the time (riots), and in Italy were the victims several times of verbal onslaughts of "Go Home."

Summing up their trip, they both said "We enjoyed every country we visited, but we're glad to be back home. Many countries we wouldn't care to visit again, especially those in the Far East where poverty is so prevalent."

As for tension in the cold war between the East and West, the Berans reported that it is everywhere, from the Far East to the Scandinavian countries.

Major and Mrs. Beran are undecided about their future plans, except for staying here until after the holiday season. They are considering purchase of a home in Palm Springs, for winter occupancy.

Juveniles Blamed

Two juveniles, about six years of age, are suspected of causing malicious mischief stopping up a drain and turning on a shower at the residence at 1807 South Palm Canyon drive, police reported.

A nearby resident, who noticed water running out of the house, called the attention of the police to the incident.

NEW SERVICE STATION — Formal opening of the new $25,000 Hancock Station at Indian avenue and Andreas road is shown above. More than 1000 balloons and suckers were given away and a 1000 gallons of gas. Shown with the Hill Billy band which played for the opening are Lin Lundgaard, operator, the poster trademark of the company, Walter Meggitt, general sales manager for White Distributing company of Ontario, exclusive Hancock products distributor, Newcomb Taylor, Hancock Oil company vice president and E. I RISE TO REMARK

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

When the touring inspection committee reached Luxembourg, two things happened which might be worth reporting in this weekly letter. First, the committee unanimously rejected the designs, approved by a previous commission, for the memorial at Hamm, the U. S. cemetery in Luxembourg.

This is a simple statement but back of it lies a two year's fight on the part of your Congressman, Luxembourg is a unique little nation. It is unique in many ways, but most of all in that it does not look to the United States for aid. When we offered money, with great liberality, after the war, to all Europe, little Luxembourg said politely, no, thank you, we will pull ourselves out without any money help; and they have done it. They have been independent and self-reliant for centuries. They have also been noted for stone work, and a solid type of architecture.

AS NEARLY AS I can figure it, the designs had been approved for most of the U. S. cemeteries, when the ultra-modernists felt they were being overlooked. A commission, somewhat weaker apparently than the present one, yielded and only poor little Luxembourg was left, as the victim.

My subcommittee, for two years, has specifically refused to appropriate money for this memorial, until the architect threatened to make it a national issue in his profession. At times I felt a little like the boy with his finger in the dike.

Well, how would you like it, if you had a son buried in this cemetery, to arrive and see a "memorial" which, from the one side, looked like a W. W. I "Jenny" about to take off, and from the other side, needed only a couple gas pumps to look like any modern gas station? Or would you think a bas-relief, apparently of an Egyptian about to kill a Hebrew child, appropriate on a U. S. war memorial? Or an equally unrealistic bas-relief of an alleged female with two right hands?

WE HAVE SOMETHING of the same sort in an English cemetery. The design back of the altar and on the ceiling is in mosaic, but the design has no relation to the rest of the building. The "angels" look like witches out of Macbeth and a visitor expecting to find peace in the chapel, would find discord. The architect himself says it is like going into a chapel and finding a loud radio blaring away.

What I don't understand is why intelligent people seem afraid to say that such things are not right. Are they afraid of being called "mossbacks" if they do not like the so-called "modern art"? As a matter of fact, these things are not "modern" at all, but belong with the grotesques of early art before it reached its maturity, and some of the designs are similar to those Michelangelo threw away as worthless. What is "modern" about these?

THE SECOND ITEM was that, from Luxembourg, I slipped over into Frankfurt and then flew to Paris, while the commission went into the Vosges and to Paris by car. I flew in with the courier.

I can report that economy is no longer an unknown word in the state department and among the armed forces. There is still room for improvement but the situation is encouraging. Better yet, I can report that the morale among our troops, and the NATO forces, is measurably better than a year ago. The recent maneuvers were successful.
